Thoughts From Tina... By Tina Dalton, Director

The Page Turners will meet on Wed. September 12 at 1:30 p.m., when they will discuss The Tea Girl of Hummingbird Lane by Lisa See.

The main book display for this month is "Banning Books Silences Stories", featuring a variety of titles that have been banned or challenged in the United States.

We wrapped up summer reading this month, combining our finale with the Friends Fest. We had wonderful community support this year in prizes and participating.

On August 20, I taught a class in painting Mandala Record Albums. The class was quite popular and participants really enjoyed themselves. On August 28 the library hosted guest speaker Wade Robertson, an avid outdoorsman and columnist for the Bradford Era and Olean Times Herald. Those in attendance appreciated his stories.

The reciprocal lending program we are participating in has been working out very well. The program allows us to share new titles with 14 other libraries that are participating at this time. We have received many new items "hot off the presses" for our patrons due to this lending agreement. We hope that this program continues to allow patrons to get new titles much more quickly than they might have otherwise.

Upcoming Programs:
Sept. 18 @ 6 p.m. ~ Mandala Painting
Sept. 29 @ 1 p.m. ~ Craft Swap

Chat With Cherilyn...

By Cherilyn Wise, Youth Services Coordinator

August continued the summer reading theme of Library Rocks throughout all the storytimes. Ashley Ward led storytimes for both the preschool and K-5 groups and brought a step piano and many other instruments.

I began each of the Make It @ Your Library sessions with a STEM challenge, such as LEGO building challenges and Tangram challenges before more unstructured time. I enjoyed watching the kids try to think through the spatial challenges of the Tangrams especially.

Our garden has been yielding quite a few tomatoes but more importantly the children who participated in Go Go Garden were invested in the garden and the produce.

Art Camp taught by Rise Peacock has been well-attended throughout the month. Hannah Krull assisted her with teaching/working on projects.

The teens had a Dungeons &Dragons session on August 1st. Throughout the month, there were many teens at the library, reading, on computers/tablets, and playing board games. We plan to restart some of our teen programming in the next couple of months.

This month, we are offering a Yoga Storytime run by Jessie Lampack Slattery on Tuesdays. The class is for ages 2-4 with a caregiver, and includes stories, simple stretches and poses, and a little information about mindfulness. As with most of our programming, registration is required to attend this program.

Regular storytimes will resume in the beginning of October.

A couple of children's events coming soon include a Back to School bash on September 22nd @ 1 p.m. and a Halloween safety night in October, including a magician! I have an improv night on the horizon for both teens and tweens as well as starting Journaling Club for those ages. The Journaling Club will begin meeting in October, and will meet once a month.

This first month has been busy and full of lots of learning. I'm excited to be here and I'm looking forward to the upcoming school year full of programming.
