

Exhibit and Display Policy

The purpose of this policy is to assure that exhibit and display space is made available on an equitable and neutral basis, and that no materials are excluded because of origin, background or views of those contributing them, providing they comply with the exhibit rules.

Community Room Art Display

Some of the walls of the Community Room are equipped to hang works of art selected by an Acquisitions Committee, composed currently of four Board members, including the President, but which may include a member of the public in the future.

The artist will loan art to the Library. The art will be displayed for a minimum of three months.

The Acquisitions Committee will seek the loan of paintings from local artists to display for a predetermined period of time. The artist may assist in the hanging of the art. The artist will provide information about the painting.

The Community Room is used by many groups throughout the year. The library is not responsible for any damage to anything displayed.

Bulletin Boards

The bulletin board in the lower entry is reserved for local public events and activities sponsored by not-for-profit groups, including library activities. Posters and flyers will be displayed a maximum of two weeks before a dated event.

The bulletin board at the top of the front steps, by the elevator, is for individuals or businesses to advertise a profit-making venture of local interest. If it becomes too crowded, flyers can only be posted for a 30 day maximum.

The bulletin board inside the library by the water fountain is posters and flyers promoting ongoing public services like GED classes and the like.

All flyers and signs must be approved by the Library Director. Carelessly designed flyers and posters will not be displayed.
