

Thoughts From Tina...

By Tina Dalton, Director

The Page Turners will meet on Wed., October 9 at 1:30 p.m., when they will discuss The Immortalists by Chloe Benjamin.

The Books & Brews book club will meet on Thurs., October 24 at 6 p.m. at Moonwinks to discuss The Lost City of the Monkey God by Douglas Preston.

The main book display for this month is "Books to Keep You Up at Night", featuring thrillers, horror, and true crime.

September is traditionally a slow month for programming. We spend it recovering from Summer Reading and ramping up for the rest of the year. I also use it to plan next year's Arts programming. Books and Brews is growing in popularity—we have 23 people registered for it at this time. That is quite a large book club! This month we met at The Perfect Blend and had a nice discussion of the psychological thriller, "An Anonymous Girl".

On Sept. 21 & 22 we had a booth at the annual Garlic Festival. While at the booth, people had the opportunity to share with us the title of their favorite book, spin a prize wheel, and take a free book. We gave away free pens with our new logo on them.

In other news, the DOT has installed directional signs for the library! Look for them as you approach the intersection of Main and 305.

Thurs. Oct 10 @ 6:30 pm ~ Why We Love Vampires

Chat With Cherilyn...

By Cherilyn Wise, Youth Services Coordinator

Jessie Slattery held four Yoga Storytimes in the month of September. All other storytimes were on hold to let families with older children get readjusted to the school schedule.

The Dungeons and Dragons groups met in September, and CSI Club for tweens began with a fingerprinting activity, both taking prints of themselves and dusting objects for fingerprints.

Mrs. Klotz's AM and PM Pre-K classes came for a visit. I also met with a homeschool family to talk about potential services the library could provide or supplement. We encourage homeschoolers to take advantage of the resources that the library has to offer.

We had a petting zoo in the last week of September. Mike Morton brought his goats (some of which were babies the last time he came and brought only baby animals), chickens, rabbits, tortoises, a Patagonian Cavy, a lamb, hedgehogs, etc.

I have also completed a phone training to administer three Junior Achievement programs: for children – Our Community, for tweens – It's My Business, and for teens – Personal Finance. The children's curriculum will be part of my afterschool explorers group once I receive the kit. The older two will be offered as 6 week "clubs."

Upcoming Programs:

Wed. Oct 2 @ 3 pm ~ Red Cross Pillowcase project.
Tues. Oct. 15 @ 6 pm ~ Spooky Magic Show
Sat. Oct. 19 @ 1 pm ~ Costume/ Cosplay Contest
Mon. Oct. 28 @ 6 pm ~ Teen Halloween movie night
