DECEMBER 2025 DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Patron Visits

IMMIGRATION IN NYS 1650-1950

In the month of February, the library is hosting a traveling display from South Central Regional Library Council on Immigration in New York State. This four banner display begins with the arrival of Dutch settler and continues through WW2, while also acknowledging that we live on land taken from indigenous people, who were enslaved, indentured, and otherwise subjugated for centuries. Waves of immigrants brought trauma and experienced trauma, all while working towards the vibrant, diverse New York State we enjoy today. This exhibit will be featured in the main reading room of the library.

PATRON NUMBERS

In December, we estimate 2,568 visitors. Our door counter began malfunctioning towards the end of the month and we are in the process of replacing it. Circulation was 2,100. We added 8 new library cards. WiFi was accessed 306 times and we answered 46 reference questions.

Grants

I spent a lot of time this month working on the Community Arts Grant, which is due on Jan. 9. Michele Conklin and I met to discuss how the library can collaborate via the grant to bring Shake on the Lake to our community. I met with area artists in person, via phone call, and email to gather details for the grant. In total, I hope to bring 13 artists to our library through this grant.

I met with Kim Meehan, founder and CEO of Cuba's Outdoor, Arts, and Recreation Society, to discuss a joint application to a National Science Foundation grant. This project would be a collaboration between OARS, the library, SBU, and CRCS.

End of Year Evaluations

I met individually with library staff to complete annual performance reviews. These meetings are always a valuable opportunity to check in one-on-one, discuss how things are going, and provide necessary feedback. We are fortunate to have a skilled and dedicated team that consistently excels in customer service.

Jingle Ingalls

Susan Herrick, the director of the Chamber of Commerce, and I collaborated to organize Jingle Ingalls visits throughout Cuba this holiday season. Jingle is an Elf on the Shelf with his own Facebook page that visits Cuba businesses and gets up to all sorts of trouble. From December 1-24 you could find Jingle visiting Tap N Pour, Six South, Hometown Vet, or a variety of other places making mischief. This is a great way to promote area businesses and build community through a little holiday fun.

2026 Advocacy Day

I will be attending Library Advocacy Day in Albany on Feb. 3. This annual bus trip allows STLS librarians and staff to go to Albany to advocate for library funding in person from our legislators. In the upcoming weeks, Trustees, Friends, and patrons will have opportunities to send in postcards, make social media posts, and participate in this annual advocacy campaign in meaningful ways. I encourage you all to keep an eye out for opportunities to participate!

Storytimes/After School

Preschool Storytime met only three times before Christmas. We did one winter themed storytime and two Christmas storytimes. The toddler group met three times also with the same themes. Each week, we decorated the felt Christmas tree when the stories were over. Afterschool Crew met twice and Afterschool Explorers met three times. We did some Christmas activities, including making cards for the Cuba Hospital nursing home.

Teens/Tweens

High School book club read the dystopian novel “Shatter Me” by Tahereh Mafi. I attended Lit Lunch three times. Mrs. Ross and I decided to take a short break and resume partway through January.

Outreach

Tina visited BOCES Elm Street classes once. I visited Erica Quattrone’s class. I also visited the Pre-K classrooms. I visited both early head start and head start. The CRE after school group came here for their visit. All of these groups had Christmas themed storytimes and activities.

We paid for Cris Johnson to visit the elementary school and perform his winter magic show.

We showed four Christmas movies in the community room on 12/23. We did not provide snacks or anything, just put the movies on. Three of the four had people attend.

Conflict of Interest Policy

Cuba Library trustees and employees shall adhere to the highest standards of honesty, good faith and fair dealing in all activities relating to the organization.

No trustee, employee or any member of their respective families or households shall accept gifts, gratuities, or favors of any kind from any person, firm or corporation doing business or seeking to do business with the library, and which could reasonably be expected to influence, or create the appearance of influencing, their actions affecting the library.

Without full and complete disclosure to and approval by the Board of Trustees, no trustee or employee shall have any position of influence with, or a material financial interest in, any other entity, the existence of which does or could reasonably be expected to conflict with the proper performance of their duties or responsibilities to library, or which could reasonably be expected to affect their independent judgment and action with respect to transactions between the library and such other entity. If such a position exists, it must be disclosed to the Library Director and to the president of the Board.

Each trustee and the Library Director shall provide the Board of Trustees with a written notification of any transaction or situation that may imply any reasonable doubt concerning the possible existence of a conflict of interest by the director or staff person.

In the event that the library may wish to contract or enter into an arrangement for goods or services under circumstances that may present a conflict of interest affecting one or more of its trustees or employees, the following shall apply. The affected person(s) of the library agree(s) to provide full information to the Board of Trustees to allow the Board of Trustees to approve or disapprove by resolution, with the advantage of full disclosure, such contract or arrangement. Disclosure of Interests Form

The Conflict of Interest Policy, which sets forth standards of expected conduct, includes a provision that requires trustees and employees to disclose all interests which could result in a conflict.

Please complete and return the enclosed Disclosure of Interests Form. Please be assured that the disclosure requirements are intended to provide the Board with a systematic and ongoing method of disclosing and ethically resolving potential conflicts of interest. Although it is impossible to list every circumstance giving rise to a possible conflict of interest, the following will serve as a guide to the types of activities that might cause conflicts and that should be fully reported:

1. Outside Interests

- A. To hold, directly or indirectly, a position or a material financial interest in any other entity from which the individual has reason to believe the library secures goods or services (including the services of buying or selling stocks, bonds, or other securities), or that provides services competitive with the system.
- B. To compete, directly or indirectly, with the library in the purchase or sale of property or property rights, interests or services.

2. Outside Activities

To render directive, managerial, or consultative services to any outside concern that does business with, or competes with the services of the library, or to render other services in competition with the library.

3. Inside Information

To disclose or use information relating to the library's business for the personal profit or advantage of the individual or their respective families or households.

4. Gifts, Gratuities, and Entertainment

To accept gifts, excessive entertainment, or other favors from any outside concern that does, or is seeking to do, business with, or is a competitor of, the library - under circumstances from which it might be inferred that such action was intended to influence or possibly would influence the individual in the performance of their duties.

This prohibition is not intended to preclude business meals or other nominal benefits in the reasonable and ordinary course of business.

Full disclosure of any situation in doubt should be made so as to permit an impartial and objective determination. It should be particularly noted that disclosure relates not only to yourself, but also to your respective families or households.
